

CROSSWORD

No. 13,684 Set by CINEPHILE

JOTTER PAD

ACROSS

- 1, 5 Tory group took path of Riley for maybe three miles (8,6)
- 10 Political plan superseded by sat-nav? (4,3)
- 11 Here are music and wine and lots of waiters (7)
- 12 Here's milk – something for making tea after church (5)
- 13 Bronte character revolutionary in roll (9)
- 14 Scots boy exercising wit in infertile surroundings – which this complex is not (6,6)
- 18 Engineers with money – about a pound – at last achieve glory (12)
- 21 Get going with treatment that's hurtful and bitter (4-5)
- 23 Heather says she's well off changing languages (5)
- 24 Paris company shown to be uninspired (7)
- 25 Sound of netted birds? (7)
- 26 I may be put about here and there (6)
- 27 Possible upshot for expression of American left-hander (8)

DOWN

- 1 Theft from the reverent by the lively? (6)
- 2 Single vehicle, American, involved in air crash (6)

- 3 Quarrel about person with entirely defensive structure (5,4)
- 4 Outlawed kid about to bear up remarkably with excess (14)
- 6 Bronte character embracing setter in nest (5)
- 7 Helping hand got round problem (4,4)
- 8 10th stencilled copy not to make king (8)
- 9 Dilemma of means of dismissal for all the players? (5,6-3)
- 15 This camel could be a seeker for gold (9)
- 16 Stopper at residence under thick-et (5,3)
- 17 Tory peer to have accident frequently, according to Spooner (8)
- 19 Circus's revival of grass on rock (3,3)
- 20, 22 New weapons have enabled escape with difficulty (6,5)

SOLUTION 13,683

