

CROSSWORD

No. 13,852 Set by IO

JOTTER PAD

ACROSS

- 1 Is murder victim the French mother of Edward III? (8)
- 6 Mass cleansing unpleasant smell with pumice (6)
- 9 -1 finally scored in maths, perhaps (6)
- 10 The way I see it, circumventing anger's boring (8)
- 11 Not quite the biggest tie writer is wrapping round (4)
- 12 For consumption, one's found yellowish-brown item on plate (1-4,5)
- 14, 16 A repeated double-crosser, I shot one of the boys in the money (8,4)
- 18, 19 It's a great idea for anorexic Wenceslas! (4,8)
- 21 Mo's tricksily led on by old dear on tour (10)
- 22 Missing games period, but not with stress (4)
- 24 The state is rank in a big way (8)
- 26 A Jewish month, it's what presumably follows zero-hour (6)
- 27 Bowled in part of Ashes series, say, in most favourable circumstances (2,4)
- 28 Plays tricks - mostly innocent - in the plant (8)

DOWN

- 2 A Scandinavian married in the London area (5)
- 3 One becalmed in inlet, Paris banks now close? (8,3)

- 4 "Cryptically ply with it" (Neo, a setting machine) (8)
- 5 It'll provoke a nervous response on Petticoat Lane I suspect, having no energy (6,9)
- 6 Rising medic plundering genuine food store (6)
- 7 Authentication not granted in relation to Roman power (3)
- 8 Stop anything-but-boring gang going north (9)
- 13 19 to move something a distance away (11)
- 15 Cockney clockmaker who has ranges within his range? (9)
- 17 I am put off going round the Circle Line? (8)
- 20 Bill's only settle (6)
- 23 Lost through dawn showdown? Half of it (5)
- 25 Endlessly look for (and find) bishop's place (3)

SOLUTION 13,851

